

LYDIA G. MALLETT, PH.D.

Lydia G. Mallett, Ph.D. is a Global Human Resources Leader and Consultant. Dr. Mallett has experience in consumer foods, safety and security and manufacturing industries. Her leadership roles have included Chief Diversity Officer and Leader of Global Talent Acquisition at Dupont. She led the development and execution of aggressive strategies for, Inclusion and Diversity, Employee Engagement and Talent Acquisition. Her dynamic, thoughtful and inclusive approach garnered leadership commitment, to support the implementation of business aligned programs and initiatives resulting in strong outcomes.

Prior to DuPont, Dr. Mallett was Vice President, Global Staffing and Diversity with Tyco International where she led the design and implementation of a global Inclusion and Diversity Center of Excellence and Global Talent Acquisition. Additional career moves included Vice President, Chief Diversity Officer and Business Partner for the Snacks business unit, for General Mills. Dr. Mallett started her career as a Management Consultant at Coopers & Lybrand and James H. Lowry & Associates where she gained expertise in the areas of leadership development, inclusion and diversity, performance management, succession planning and facilitation.

Dr. Mallett holds a Ph.D. and MA in Social Psychology (Michigan State University); a MA in Labor and Industrial Relations (Michigan State University) and a BA in Psychology (Michigan State University). Harvard Business School Women on Boards: Succeeding as a Corporate Director. She is also a Intercultural Development Inventory Qualified Administrator.

Board service includes: African American Policy Forum(AAPF), Executive Leadership Council (ELC) – Past co-chair governance committee, Past President – Minnesota Women’s Campaign Fund, National Women’s Business Council – White House appointment, Former Conference Board Chair – Council on Global Diversity